

Cultural Awareness

- an intercultural crash course

The purpose of the course:

On this Cultural Awareness Course you will gain knowledge on what it takes to act in a intercultural context, what the underlying reasons are, why we act and do as we do and how, we with research based knowledge, best practice and simple tools can achieve fruitful intercultural working relations.

Content:

- Saying hello, culture shocks and how to survive them
- What is culture and why do we have clashes?
- Cultural poker
- Grasping the natives point of view
- Moral, ethics and norms
- Who are we?
- Mapping the others
- Case studies, where and why do we differ
- Cultural Bridging Strategies
- Cultural Intelligence in practice
- Individual action plan
- Reflections and evaluation

Method:

Research based knowledge conveyed with a high degree of participant involvement and in respect of the participant's different learning styles and preferences

The training is be based on presentations, practical exercises and teamwork and conducted by 1 facilitator from Living Institute

About Living Institute:

Established in 2004 and now a market leader.

Living Institute offers cross-cultural training, country specific culture training, cross-cultural team building, counselling in connection with expatriation & repatriation, cultural assessments, mastering diversity programs, enhancing or developing global strategies

Our strong faculty consists of leading anthropologists, sociologists, country culture experts, business consultants and business people with vast practical global experience

'If we always do, what we've always done, we will always get, what we always got'

Stephanie Quappe &
Giovanna Cantatore

Info box

Date:

At your convenience

Duration:

½ day or 1 day

Location:

'On-site' at your location, at Living Institute's premises or a third party venue

Language:

English

Target group:

People dealing with other cultures

Contact & Registration:

Klaus Schröder Pagh

Phone:

+45 35262610

e-mail:

ksp@livinginstitute.com