

Workshop:

DANISH LIVING CRASH COURSE

- hard facts and soft features about Denmark and the Danes

THE PURPOSE OF THE COURSE:

The crash course gives the participants an introduction to Danish society, working culture and life in Denmark in general

Knowing these facts and features about Denmark and the Danes makes it a lot easier to adapt to life in Denmark – and makes it more fun to navigate in the peculiarities of Danish culture and mentality

CONTENT:

- The historical impact on Danish culture and mentality of today
- Danish values, culture and mentality
- The mental revolution
- When cultures clash
- Working culture – The Dane as a colleague and manager
- DOs and DON'Ts – written and unwritten social rules
- Socializing in Denmark and free time activities
- 'My way in' – an individual action plan

METHOD:

Research based knowledge conveyed with a high degree of participant involvement and in respect of the participant's different learning styles and preferences

The training is based on presentations, practical exercises and teamwork and facilitated by a highly educated, skilled expert from Living Institute's faculty.
